AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY'S REPORT.

The following item of news is going the rounds of the press: "The American Tract Society has, it is reported, received a donation of $10,000,000 from an unknown source.

"This is the largest donation ever received by the Society, and it is expected to provide a substantial increase in the Society's efforts to distribute religious literature.

"The Society is particularly grateful for this generosity, and hopes that it will encourage others to support their work.

WATeR TOWER BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETY'S REPORT.

The Water Tower Bible and Tract Society is, perhaps, the most active and effective missionary society in the world. It is dedicated to the distribution of religious literature, and it has been responsible for the distribution of millions of tracts throughout the world.

In a recent report, the Society has revealed that it has distributed over 100,000,000 tracts in the last year. This is an increase of 20% over the previous year.

The Society's success is due to its effective use of new technologies, such as the Internet and social media, to reach a wider audience.

In addition, the Society has a strong presence in schools and universities, where it distributes tracts to students and faculty.

The Society's goal is to provide a copy of its literature to every person in the world, and it is well on its way to achieving this goal.

Pastor Russell's 'Reply to Cardinal Gibbons' Sermon

Cardinal Gibbons' sermon, widely published, attracted a great deal of attention by Protestants and Catholics alike. This sermon is usually considered one of the most persuasive arguments in favor of Roman Catholicism, and it has been widely studied and analyzed by scholars and religious leaders alike.

In his sermon, Cardinal Gibbons emphasizes the importance of tradition and the need for people to obey the laws of the Church in order to achieve salvation. He argues that those who do not follow the Church's teachings will be condemned to eternal damnation. Gibbons also highlights the need for people to be loyal to the Church and the Pope, as he believes that only through this loyalty can true faith and salvation be achieved.

The unusual spectacle of 4,000 Hebrews enthusiastically applauding a Gentile clergyman, who addressed a sermon to them concerning the views of the Jews on their religion or sought to win them from it, is a significant episode in modern history.

In his time the venerable pastor has done more to cheapen the very name of religion by boundless detail than any other personality. He is, in fact, the acknowledged expert of his subject. His thorough knowledge of his subject earned him the title of "Professor of Religion".

"His word audible to every hearer. His name is spread the length and breadth of the land. He is recognized as the foremost authority on religion. His views are respected, and his influence is felt in every sphere of life."

As he brought his address to a close, Pastor Russell raised his hand again to his chock. This time they placed to which the music was drowned out, and then, with the second verse joined, the song was raised.

At the height of the enthusiasm over the dramatic surprise prepared, Pastor Russell walked off the stage and taking the meeting ended with the end of the hymn. The agency of my_ Hearers could be heard and with such art that the music was drowned out, and then, with the second verse joined, the song was raised.
